CALL TO ORDER

Called to order by President WORTHINGTON at 6:10 PM

ROLL CALL

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

- Xanie Clemens regarding inappropriate tabling
 - People tabling for bone marrow/leukemia donor registry, were calling out to people and shouting that people were letting kids die if they didn't sign up
 - UPDATES:
 - Conversation was had with them that day, President Worthington, athletic director is going to make sure that athletes that table these things get training beforehand
- Kendra - Interim VP of diversity affairs, Director of Student Well Being
 - Can't guarantee that no one will sue us as individuals, but I/we have your backs
 - Campus safety is here & ready, you can reach out to them
 - If there is a lawsuit, it's going to be against the institution
 - You aren't going to be punished for the decision you made last week—you aren't going to be expelled or lose your financial aid
 - Can give updates on conduct policy reports/grievance procedures when/if they happen, will start with exec board & Jose and then go from there
 - About grievance process:
 - Would be focused on the decision, not the people or group
 - Informal or Formal Resolutions possible
 - Formal resolution takes longer & would include interviews and investigations, informal happens between parties & agreements made between them
 - Report any current policy violations that you are currently seeing
 - Advisor is also protected
 - Can bring a professional in here to debrief and help the table as a whole to process
 - Campus police—here as a resource

REPORTS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Constitution committee finished line-by-line review of constitution, will be rewriting it next steps
- Student services committee going to get back to tabling next week, at least once per week
 - Gonna put together a tabling kit so that if anyone has a free hour they can just grab it and table
- PR committee will get back to work on redoing bulletin this friday
- Kaden—I can pass on messages about KDUR, I'm sitting on their board
- IFRB has been completed for this semester
